Expenditures for the site and construction studies will not exceed $8,000 under temsoof the contract, Cortes said.

Anderson To Resign Police Department

Capt. Dale Anderson of the Seaside Police Dept. recently announced he will resign to accept the position of Chief of Police of Tulare, a town of 16, 235 in the San Joaquin Valley. He will be leaving Seaside April 30 and will assume his duties in Tulare May 1.

Anderson, who has been with the Seaside Police Dept. for 13 years, was selected from among 179 other applicants. He is a graduate from MPC with a two year degree in sociology and expects to receive his BA degree from Golden Gate College.

Capt. Anderson said, when asked about his career in the Seaside Police Dept., "I've made some choice friends and had some choice experiences in the police dept. and with the members of the community...it will be hard to leave but I will carry memories with me. The experiences I've been through in Seaside, the problems we've had, the growing pains, experiences in all these areas will be of benefit to me and to the community in Tulare."

Capt. Anerson has been especially active in the Community Crime Abatement Committee (CCAC), which is comprised of every civic, social and religious organization in the city. The CCAC is organized around a neighborhood block system where one citizen in the block volunteers to be captain. If a crime is committed within that block, the captain is notified and he, in turn, notifies the police. The CCAC's sole purpose is to eliminate crime in the community. Capt. Anderson said he hopes the CCAC board members will take more time to solicit assistance and involve others in the program. He said, "I sincerely support the concept of this program. I hope the concepts of this program and the work that's being done now will take root and grow rapidly in Seaside. Until such time as we get total community involvement within the City of Seaside, certain problems will continue to exist, our crime rate will remain status quo. Unless we get the individual citizens involved totally, the program will not succeed. We must get off our laurels and get to work on it."

In Tulare, Anderson hopes to work toward a community service oriented police dept. He said he hopes to involve the total community in crime abatement and avoid emphasis on only one area of crime.

Capt. Anderson will be accompanied to Tulare by his wife, Donna Lee, and three of their five children.

Motorists Get Chance

Drinking glasses, free silverware and trading stamps use to lure motorists into pre-oil shortage service stations. Now, with long lines and gasoline limits, California's independent service station dealers are offering a new kind of premium -- a chance to regulate the oil companies.

For the last few weeks, service stations throughout California have been street corner headquarters for an initiative measure which would regulate the major oil companies by making them public utilities.

Customers are being given a chance to sign petitions that would put the measure on the November ballot. The drive needs 325,504 valid signatures to qualify the measure for a spot on that ballot.

Senate President pro Tempore James R. Mills, chairman of the Oil Initiative League (OIL), the origanization formed to coordinate the initiative effort, said, "The independent service station dealers have had to take the brunt of the major oil companies' policies to get as much out of the current oil shortage as possible. As a result, independent dealers have been forced out of the retail gasoline market."

In their initial signature gathering effort, service stations report they have received more than 50,000 signatures.

Jim Campbell, Chairman of the California Service Station Council, reports, "Motorists are as eager to sign the OIL petition as they are to get gasoline. Lines for signing the petition are equalling the lines for gasoline."

"The oil shortage has eliminated competition and increased the profits for the major oil companies," Mills said.

And from the frustration at the pumps, it is obvious the people are anxious for a change to do just that.

"We've had only one complaint from motorists," concedes service station owner Campbell.

Morgan Flagg Challenges Opponents

The Mogan Flagg for Congress Committee announced that Morgan Flagg, candidate in the 16th Congressional District, has challenged his opponents in the Democratic primary, Phil Harry and Julian Camacho, to debate the issures in public. Television and radio have indicated to Flagg that ample time will be made available if the challenge is accepted.

Flagg said all candidates should welcome the opportunity of presenting their alternatives to the Democrats of the 16th district.

Public Schools Week April 22-26 In MPUSD

April 22-26 will be Public Schools Week in the Monterey Peninsula Unified School District, Supt. James Harrison has announced.

This year, the theme is, "Public Education -- The Foundation of Democracy." Wilson Riles, state superintendent of public instruction, has delcared the entire month of April as Public Schools Month under the sponsorship of the Grand Lodge of the Free and Accepted Masons of California.

Harrison invited parents to visit schools any day during the month, but noted most schools will be holding open house activities during the week of the 22nd.

"We welcome parents at any time," he said. "We encourage them to visit the schools, talk with principals and teachers and observe first-hand the educational programs their children are involved in. There are some exciting things going on in our schools, and we're proud of them."

Most elementary schools will hold open house from 7:30 to 9 p.m. on Tuesday, April 23. Junior high school open house will be held from 7:30 to 9 p.m. Wednesday, April 24. Open house will be held at Monterey and Seaside high schools from 7:30 to 9 p.m. Thursday, April 25.

Marina La Via High School in Marina is inviting parents to visit that school Thursday during the day, rather than holding an evening open house. Cypress High School is not holding an evening open house, but will invite parents to come in during the day throughout the week.

Other exceptions include Marina Vista School, which is combining an open house with a PTA meeting on Monday, April 22, at 7:30 p.m. Noche Buena School has scheduled its open house from 5 to 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, April 25.

A number of schools have planned special programs to coincide with open house. At Fremont Junior High, for example, students will present a musical program entitled, "Cool in the Furnance," and a spaghetti dinner will precede the open house. At Bay View School, teachers will provide an orientation in each classroom, student work will be displayed and a book fair will be held.

Low-Cost Rabies Clinics Are Scheduled

An unvaccinated dog not protected against rabies is a health hazard to the owner, family, and neighbors in an area like Monterey County where rabies is endemic in wildlife, stated James D. Russell, D.V.M., newly-hired public health veterinarian. Rabid wild animals are known to attack dogs on their home ground, so that even pets who never wander can become infected.

In an effort to prevent this potentially explosive situation, and get all dogs vaccinated, the Monterey County Health Department and the local Veterinary Medical Association will conduct a month-long reduced fee rabies vaccination clinic at various convenient county locations and hours.

One simple, safe injection of vaccine provides protection for two years, and is available at the scheduled clinics for only $2.00. As a convenience to owners, dog licenses for 1974-75 may also be obtained. Vaccination and license are required in Monterey County for all dogs four months of age or older.

The schedule is as follows:

Del Rey Oaks, Old Town Hall, Mon., April 29, 4:30-6:30 pm., Carmel, 4th & Junipero, Police Station, Tues., April 30, 12:30-2:30 p.m. ; Monterey, Fire Station at Dela Vina & Montecito, Wed., May 1, 3:30-6:00 p.m.; Seaside, Fire Station, Thurs., May 2, 12:00-2:30 p.m.

Carmel Valley, Fire Station, Via Contenta, Fri., May 3, 12:30-2:30 p.m.; Pebble Beach, Lighthouse Gate, Mon., May 6, 1:00-2:30 p.m.; Mongerey, First Baptist Church Parking Lot, Hawthorne & Hoffman, Tues., May 7, 12:30-2:00 p.m.; Pacific Grove, Fire Station, Pine and 16th, Wed., May 8, 12:00-3:00 p.m.; Marina Village Shopping Center Parking Lot, Thurs., May 9, 12:30-2:00 p.m.

Today's Army NEWS By SFC Jose Garcia ARMY RECRUITER

This week I would like to discuss a field that is particularly popular among young men interested in rugged, outdoor work. The field is heavy equipment operation. Operators work with power shovels, cranes, derricks, hoists, concrete mixers, paving machines, trench excavators, bulldozers, tractors and pumps. And their skills vary with the specific machines they operate.

Some mahcines are a lot more complicated and more difficult to work than others. And their operators are, consequently, paid more money. It is not unusual for a crane operator, for instance, to earn upwards of $8 an hour. Some make even more.

The question most young men ask is what is the fastest way and surest way to get into this field. Most experts recommend completing a three-year apprenticeship as one of the best ways to qualify as journeymen operators. Usually the apprentice learns to operate and maintain equipment. In addition to on-the-job training he must also take a minimum of 144 hours a year of related classroom subjects like reading grade plans, elements of electricity, working math, welding and engine maintenance.

Young men with a jump on beginning apprentices usually get the first opportunity to operate machinery and begin making the better salaries. TODAY'S ARMY is probably the best way to get the jum in this competitive field.

TODAY'S ARMY will guarantee young men the opportunity to operate their own righ at 18. And the Army school system is the largest and one of the best in the land.

In addition to providing a young man with the kind of training and experience he needs to make some headway in this field. TODAY'S ARMY provides room and board, complete dental and medical care, 30 days paid vacation annually and a starting salary of $326.00 a month.

This week it gives me great pleasure to welcome Edward Palomares of Marina, back into TODAY'S ARMY. Edward will be assigned to Fort Ord as a Postal Clerk.

If you are interested in a position as a heavy equipment operator, contact us at 431 Webster St. in Monterey or call us at 372-4742.

To Elect Officers

The Leagu of Women Voters of the Monterey Peninsula will elect officers at their Annual meeting on Thursday, April 18 at Pacific Grove Community Center. Officers proposed by the Nominating Committee are: President, Mrs. Alvin Andrus; 1st Vice-President, Mrs. James O'Brien; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. Richard Harray; Secretary, Mrs. Eugene Hammond; Treasurer, Mrs. Richard McDermott. Members of the Board of Directors: Mrs. Glenn Schneider, Mrs. Dennis Gorman, Mrs. Charles Page, Mrs. John Von Berg, Mrs. Donald Martine, Mrs. Gordon Bradley and Mrs. Rrober Black.

They will also choose program for the 1974-75 year, and recommended by the Board for adoption by the members are two suggestions: (1) A new position boased on the current year's study of the probation system in Monterey County, and (2) a new study of the various governmental entities on the Peninsula -- their composition, powers, responsibilities and jurisdictions. Continuation of six present positions is also recommended: on consumer affairs, environmental quality, employment, libraries, public assistance and the County jail system.

Buffet luncheon precedes the meeting at 12 noon. For reservations call 375-1808 and for babysitting 624-8641.

Annual Cat Show This Weekend

The annual Monterey County Cat Show will be held at the County Fairgrounds on Saturay April 20 and Sunday April 21. This year the event is hosted by the East of Eden Cat Club. The show is ACFA sanctioned and it is a championship event. There will be judging in four rings, and all breeds of cats will be entered. There will also be a very popular Household Pets class, and a King and Queen of Household Pets will be crowned on Sunday.

This show has drawn entries from far and wide, and there will be some really magnificent cats in attendance. A further attraction is the judging of the decorated cages; this year's theme for decorations is "A Happy Birthday Party", commemmorating the East of Eden Cat Club's first holding of the event.

Show hours are from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday. There will be food available in the hall. Donation is $1.00.

For information on entering your household pet or purebred, call John Beckett at 633-4452.

Graduates 250Soldiers

250 Basic Training Unit students from the 6th Battalion graduated recently from Bravo Company at Fort Ord. The graduation review ceremony was conducted entirely by trainees, the first time this has been done.

The Commander of Troops was PVT Dennis Thomas of Entiat, Washington. PVT won the job by his performance as Trainee Leader during his basic training.

The graduation was also honored by the presence of two trainees' fathers, Brigader General Edward Greer, Deputy Commanding General at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri and CPT Frederick West Jr., executive officer, Los Alamitos Naval Air Station USN.

CPT. Steven M. Zitnick, commanding officer of Bravo Company, invited both honored guests to the reviewing stand to accept the review as Bravo Company marched by.

Also in attendance at the graduation were General Edward Markham and General Robert Gard.

After graduation the students received orders reassigning them to fulfill various missions in the Army.

Appreciation to M.P.V.S. was expressed by Mrs Violet Beehan of the Monterey Symphony Association for the $500 donation received by the association for its "in school demonstration" program.

During the month of April the following donations will be made: $1000 to the Carmel Youth Foundation; $1,000 to Beacon House; $250 to the Pacific Grove chapter of the American Field Service Foreign Student Ezchange Program, and $50 toward the scholarship fund for the World Affairs Council Conference at the Asilomar.

Want To Know The Truth About GROUND BEEF?

IT'S THIS:

Nobody can guarantee its exact fat content.*

There's been lots of talk lately about the fat-lean ratio in ground beef. So why not label each package: Contains X% of fat? Let us tell you why.

We've been making ground beef just about as long as anyone and we know there's no way to make two batches that are exactly alike. Two samples taken from the same batch (or even the same package) can differ in ratio of fat to lean. Even with meticulous care in selecting ingredients, there are variations in fat-lean ratio. Even with our most modern grinding and mixing equipment. Even with use of the best available fat-measuring devices.

Yet we know our customers want and expect us to provide them with a choice of ground beef products to meet their varying preferences, tastes and budgets. After long and careful consideration, we have concluded that we can best meet our customers' need for variety by offering just two ground beef products—REGULAR and PREMIUM. We make both kinds from fresh chunks of beef. We prepare both kinds with equal care to maintain the top quality which has helped earn our fine meat reputation.

Our REGULAR is made the way we believe most families prefer their ground beef. It contains enough fat to assure full juiciness in the cooked meat. It makes marvelous hamburgers, meat loaves, meat balls, spaghetti sauce, Salisbury steak and other delicious dishes.

Our PREMIUM is made to please families that want a leaner ground beef. It shrinks less in cooking and makes wonderful ground beef dishes of all kinds—plain and fancy.

Why not try both kinds and see which is preferred by the folks at your house? (You might even want to make a mix with some of each.) The famous Safeway money-back guarantee applies, of course, to our ground beef as to all of our other products.

Items & prices in this ad are available April 17, 1974 thru April 23, 1974 at all Safeway Stores listed below:

National Park Foundation President Honored At Reception

A reception honoring John Bryant, Jr., President of the National Park Foundation, Washington, D.C., was held at Del Monte Lodge recently.

Hosted by Mr. and Mrs. D. Kirk Davidson, Carmel Valley, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gawthrop, (he is president of Del Monte Properties Company), the cocktail party was attended by a small group of people whose primary interest is that of conservation.

Spending a long time in conversation with Mr. Bryant, who was elected president of the Foundation last year, was Mrs. Nathanial Owings of San Francisco and Big Sur. Mrs. Owings, President of the Friends of the Sea Otters and wife of the internationally known architect, was a Founder of the National Park Foundation.

Mr. Bryant, addressing the group, explained that the Foundation chartered by Congress in 1967 as a private entity supporting the National Park Service, "is able to purchase lands with privately donated funds in advance of legistation, which could make land subject to non-park use."

In addition, he added, "the Foundation operates on Environmental Education program (NEED) for students in kindergarden through the 8th grades."

Generously funded by private individuals, corporations and other foundations, the Foundation's acquisitions are incorporated into the National Park Service, which had over 200 million visitors last year.

Some of these acquisitions are The Cumberland Island, Georgia, "a relatively untouched island nineteen miles long that is almost wholly wild and long desired by the Park Service," a small piece of land next to Muir Woods National Monument near San Francisco, the Adams National Historic Site in Quincy, Massachusetts, in addition to the Skagway National Historical Park, the dedication of which Mr. Bryant had attended in Alaska before his trip to Pebble Beach.

Attending the reception were the Charles Kramers of Pebble Beach. (Mr. Kramer is Chairman of the Central Coastal Zone Commission.) Mr. and Mrs. Fred Farr (Mr. Farr is a former state Senator and is now Chairman of the California Coastal Zone Conservation Committee); Mr. Nathanial Owings of the architectural firm of Skidmore, Owings and Merrill, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stanton, Carmel Valley, (Virginia is a member of the California Art Commission and is nationally known as an interior decorator and writer, whileher architect husband, Bob, is the Advisor to the National Trust on preservation of historical buildings in Monterey County); Mr. and Mrs. Skip Lloyd, (Skip is an attorney in Monterey and is President of OLAF (Odello Land Aquisition Fund); Mr and Mrs. Rudd Crawford (Mr. Crawford is chairman of the Ventana Chapter of the Sierra Club); Mr. Stuyvesant Fish, Carmel, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Raggett, Pebble Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Al Cross, Monterey, Mr. and Mrs. Tom McCullough, Pebble Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bolman, Pebble Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Greg Bradbury, Monterey, and Mr. Harry Holmes, Pebble Beach.

Unable to attend the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Ansel Adams of Camel. Mr. Adams' beautiful photographs illustrate the National Park Foundation's annual report and brochures.

State Had Fewer Highway Deaths, Injuries In 1973

Final tabulation of California traffic statistics for 1973 showed a lower mileage death rate and reductions in fatalities and injuries compared to 1972, Lloyd G. Turner, Chief, Office of Traffic Safety, reported today.

The fatality rate last year was 3.7 per 100 million miles, a 5 percent improvement on the 3.9 rate in 1972. The mileage death rate was based on an estimated 132½ billion miles travelled in the state during 1973. The rate 10 years ago in 1963 was 5.2 per 100 million miles.

Turner said the official total of traffic fatalities in 1973 was 4,905, down from 4,996 in the previous year. The deaths occurred as the result of 4,318 accidents, a drop of 108 from 4,426 in 1972.

Injury-only accidents last year totaled 171,707, down from 172,197 in 1972. The number of persons injured in traffic accidents in 1973 was 250,396, a reduction of 2,033 from the 252,429 injury victims in 1972.

Turned said, due to the large volume of reports to be analyzed and tabulated, final traffic statistics for each year are never available until about three months after the end of the year.

Complaints Are Registered

California's minimum wage of $2.00 an hour is the pay benchmark for nearly all industries and adult workers in the State, and employers who do not pay the minimum wage leave themselves open to criminal charges.

The State minimum wage increased on March 4 from $1.65 to $2.00 an hour, and employers have had ample time by now to make the upward pay scale adjustment, according to Evelyn Whitlow, Chief of the Division of Industrial Welfare in the State Department of Industrial Relations.

"We have had complaints, however, particularly involving the restaurant industry, that the new minimum scale is not being paid or that the coverage has not been extended to men," Miss Whitlow says.

The new State minimum wage order, for the first time, applies to men as well as to women. In previous years, men could only benefit from the minimum wage under equal pay provisions of the California Labor Code.

"Employers operating restaurants, hotels, and other personal service industries have tended over the years to consider tips and gratuities as part of the total wage package. Since March 4, for tip credit to be taken, a sign so stating must be posted in a conspicuous place where it may be observed by patrons. If the employee is a tipped employee and regularly receives more than $20.00 per month in gratuities, up to 25 cents an hour may be credited toward the $2.00 an hour basic minimum wage," Miss Whitlow says.

The penalties for violating minimum wage requirements of the Industrial Welfare Commission orders are fines or imprisonment or both under the California Labor Code.

Bob Wood Reports

If at any time you feel you have been treated unfairly, misled or defrauded in any real estate transaction--including buying or selling a real estate syndicate security--you may lodge a complaint with the California Department of Real Estate.

I am sure that by and far the large majority of real estate brokers and mortgage loan brokers are good honest people, but like all businesses I suppose there are exceptions. It is because of these exceptions that the State has created this Department that can help you with complaints involving real estate brokers, real estate salesmen, subdividers, syndicators and real property securities dealers. But if you have a complaint be sure you bring it to their attention before three years lapse because in most cases the Department loses jurisdiction three years after the occurrence of a transaction.

A special complaint form is not necessary when bringing a problem to the attention of the Department. All that is needed is your facts. Include copies of your documents and reconstructions of any conversations involved. Receipt of this information will be acknowledged by the Department. If it requires further information, you will be contacted. You will be notified of any results obtained through Department action on your difficulty.

The Department has two consumer brochures that are available. One is entitled "May We Help You?", which explains how you may lodge a complaint with the Department and the other title is "What the Borrower Should Know About the Mortgage Loan Broker," which points out pitfalls when applying for a real estate loan. These brochures are available without charge on request.

For one of these free pamphlets, or for more information, write: California Department of Real Estate, 714 P. street, Sacramento 95814.
